CHAPEL MUSIC FRIENDS

Music adorns and enriches the services at the Tower of London, and plays a central role in the liturgies celebrated at The Chapels Royal.

We are proud to have one of the finest church choirs in the UK, made up of some of the best young singers in London, led by the Master of Music and Assistant Master of Music.

Year on year we strive to invest in and develop the musical life of the Chapels, through supporting individual members of the choir, developing the choir's repertory, commissioning new music and putting on concerts.

You can help us to sustain, support and develop this extremely vital part of our Chapel life for generations to come.

BE PART OF THE TRADITION

We are very fortunate at The Chapels Royal, HM Tower of London, to have top class musicians working in the Chapels. The choir of twelve is made up of young professional singers who are in the early stages of their careers, many of whom already perform regularly at an international level both as soloists, and in some of the world's leading vocal ensembles including The Sixteen, the Monteverdi Choir, Tenebrae and The Tallis Scholars. The wealth of skill and experience that these musicians bring to the job they do at the Tower means that there is a consistently high level of music making which beautifies the services week by week.

We are seeking support and resources to maintain and develop what the music can offer in the Tower Chapels. Do join us to ensure the future of this vital part of Chapel life.

Colm Carey
Master of Music

The Chapels Royal are an integral part of the life of the Tower of London and embody both tradition and living history. We are very proud to have such wonderful music to enrich and enliven our services, and we wish to ensure the future role of music for generations to come.
